Client Privacy Policy

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how the medical information about you may be used and disclosed. This notice will also tell how you can get access to this information.

Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

You have certain rights when it comes to your health information. This section explains your rights and our responsibilities to help you.

- How to obtain an electronic or paper copy of your medical record
 - You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
 - We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, within 30 days of your request. There may be a fee associated with this request.
- Ask us to correct your medical record
 - You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
 - We may say “no” to your request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days of your request.

- Request Confidential Communications
 - You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
 - We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.
- Ask us to limit what we use or share
 - You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations.
 - We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.
 - If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer.
 - We will say “yes” to this request, unless a law requires us to share that information.
- Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared your information
 - You can ask for a list of the times we have shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
 - We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one list a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
 - You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.
- Choose someone to act for you
 - If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
 - We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
- File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated
 - You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to:
 - 200 Independence Avenue, S.W.
 - Washington, D.C. 20201Or by calling 1-877-696-6775,
Or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/

We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you are able to tell us what your choices are about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, please let us know. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

- In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:
 - Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
 - Share information in a disaster relief situation
 - Include your information in a hospital directory
 - Contact you for fundraising efforts
- In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:
 - Marketing purposes
 - Sale of your information
 - Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

- Treat you
 - We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.
- Run our organization
 - We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.
- Bill for your services
 - We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.

How else can we use or share your health information? We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways - usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet any conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see:
